From Saturday August 19. to Tuesday August 22. 1721.

Conſtantinople, June 28.

A Dulcignote Veſſel, with about fifteen Sailors on Board, being lately in the Port of Venice, and lying by the Shore, the Sailors had a Quarrel with ſome Venetians, and from their Veſſel fired upon the latter, and killed two or three of them; whereupon the Venetian Mob got together, and either burnt or ſunk the Veſſel and all her Men. The Venetian Bailo here has received an Expreſs with Advice of this Accident, before the Port has had any Account of it from Dulcigno, and has repreſented it in ſo plauſible a Manner, that the Vizier has ſent Orders to the Dulcignotes to forbear committing any Hoſtilities upon the Venetians, which it is likely they would otherwiſe have done, and has directed the Paſha to inquire into the Fact, and ſend him an exact Relation of it.

Paris, Aug. 27. On the 25th Inſtant being St. Lewis's Day, the Carmelites of St. Maubert went in Proceſſion to the Chapel of the Tuilleries, to ſay Maſs according to Cuſtom; and paſſing through the Rue de la Feronerie, where King Henry the Fourth was aſſaſſinated, they ſtopt to ſing the uſual Hymn for the Repoſe of that Prince's Soul. That Evening there was a Conſort of Muſick in the Gardens of the Tuilleries, followed by a Fire-work, both which were performed with great Skill and to the Satisfaction of the Company, which was very numerous. The King was upon the Terraſs under a magnificent Canopy, ſurrounded by the Princes of the Blood and his chief Officers. The Farm of Tobacco is not given to the India Company, as was expected, but to another Company conſiſting of 12 Perſons, at the Head of whom are Meſſ. Bonnevier and l'Allemant de Bez, two of the General Farmers. The Leaſe is for nine Years, and will begin from the 1ſt of October next, but it is not yet publiſhed in due Form. The King has granted to M. de Morville the Reverſion of the Employment of Secretary of State which M. d'Armenonville his Father has at preſent, together with a Brevet de Retinue of 400000 Livres; ſome ſay the latter will have the Province of Secretary of State for foreign Affairs in the Room of the Cardinal du Bois, and that then his Son will ſucceed him immediately. The Abbot Paſſarini is expected here from Rome, with the Cap for the ſaid Cardinal du Bois, who has cauſed Lodgings to be prepared for that Abbot in the Hôtel d'Effiat, which that Prelate has hired for his Retinue. According to our Advices from la Canourgue of the 12th Inſtant, the two Phyſicians the Court ſent thither ſome time ago, were entirely recovered from the Plague, of which they had been ill, and the Number of the Dead and Sick diminiſhed daily. There are Letters in Town from Montpellier and other Places in Languedoc, which ſay, that the Diſtemper had got among ſome of the Troops which are in the Gevaudan to guard the Lines; and that two of the infected Companies were ſhut up by other Troops, to hinder the further ſpreading of that Sickneſs.

Genoa, Aug. 5, N. S. This Day the Magiſtrates of Health ſignified in Writing to Mr. Henſhaw the Britiſh Conſul here, that this Republick conſidering the preſent dangerous State of Health, has reſolved not to admit henceforward into this Port of Genoa, any Ships coming from the Ocean into the Mediterranean, be they Britiſh, Dutch, or of any other Nation, unleſs they produce Certificates from the proper Magiſtrates of the Place or Port where they were laden, that the ſaid Place or Port was free from the Plague, and that the Goods laden in them were actually put on board them at ſuch Place or Port.

The preceeding Article is publiſhed, to the Intent all Britiſh Merchants trading to Genoa, may take Notice of the Rules preſcribed therein, and conform themſelves thereto, to prevent any Inconveniences or Loſſes which they may otherwiſe ſuſtain.
